

Are You Looking to Hire Job-Ready Employees?

VIRGINIA DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES

The Full Employment Program (FEP) is a subsidized program available through the Virginia Department of Social Services that provides opportunities for participants to increase self-sufficiency by earning a living wage, increasing career-related work skills, and improving their competitiveness in the labor market.

As an FEP employer, you can receive a monthly stipend for up to six months for each FEP participant you hire.

FEP employers will receive stipends based on tiers:

How can I hire FEP participants?

Contact an FEP consultant at fep@dss.virginia.gov or inquire about FEP at your local department of social services.

An Employment Services Program case manager will refer a job-ready program participant

Conduct a job interview and hire a referral

